

Satan has no power over us except that which we allow him to take. The Prophet Joseph Smith taught the principle that those with bodies have power over those without bodies. It is only through the misuse of our agency that we give Satan influence in our lives.

Satan has no power over us except that which we allow him to take. The Prophet Joseph Smith taught the principle that those with bodies have power over those without bodies. It is only through the misuse of our agency that we give Satan influence in our lives.

